INSPIRATION

We are all social creatures always looking for fantasy in real life to trigger our thought process and seek inspiration from them. On a daily basis we come across a lot of strangers but we seek inspiration from only a few of them, and what set them apart are the stories that they have to tell. Even as a child, we grow up listening to stories of how a hero comes to the rescue of his people and his family, we find solace in such stories. Studies have also found that such inspirational stories have a positive effect on our brain and help us become more emphatic, generous and improve our overall outlook on life. Inspirational stories are less about progress, and more about how our people manage mishaps, how they vanquish their enemies and how they grow as individuals. Pankaj Choudhary is the founder of a software development firm, Cppsecrets Technologies Pvt. Ltd.
